

a few minutes. Aunt Maggie and Eleanor had just been there and Aunt Jennie had just read your letter. Martha seems good. Mr. J. S. Niles and Mr. Fineman both have the Flu.

Francis O'Neil died Wednesday at noon from Typhoid Pneumonia was buried Sat. A.M. at Pleasant Mount. Some one told pop that they had adopted a little girl.

Pops new cows 7 of them filled 3 cans in a day not so fast.

Is Jean coming home with you the 22nd?

Pops show will be the 20th I have not decided just whether I will sing or play or do a fancy dance.

Helen began her music lessons and wonders why she ever thought it such a task to practice as she enjoys it now, and I think by the sound she knows it.